Students For Answers Find Reasons

Answers?
Varied questions came with 1972-73 ...for under classmen finding their way through crowded halls and adding one more year towards their goal; for seniors taking the final steps toward graduation. During a year of war, olympics, politics and world-wide conflicts ... Western Heights students found reasons in our time.

Students Seek Individuality

Students?

I am a student ... an individual doing what I want when I want...
but sometimes I wonder.

An individual, I said, not a number. It's hard sometimes not to be a number when there's 1,530 students
...and you're only one.

I like to think of myself as one of a kind ... though I am still basically the same as others in ways of ideas ... concepts ... and purposes in life.

As a student I am encircled in a rat race ... of classes, tests, parking, studying ... memorizing ... still it's an important part of learning.

My Questions For Reasons Go Unexplained

Reasons?
There are many reasons in our time ... reasons for war ... and poverty ... trying to change things seems useless because usually I am unheard.
Reasons in our time ... our time being that of inflation, space walks, over population, and environmental pollution.

Why these things happen I don't know, but there must be reasons ... that will in my time be discovered.

Involvement Encompasses Student Life

Involvement?

Going to meetings and being active on campus ... I guess that's what most people would call involvement.

Being involved in extracurricular activities is just part of going to school...but merely going to classes and going home is the apathetic way to attend school. It's not that I don't care, it's just with work and other activities I don't have the time to do all the things I'd like to ... but then isn't that being involved?

Involvement isn't just being in school activities, it's lunch hours ... parties ... car-pools ... or skipping school to miss a test.

Jets Find Reasons--from Humorous

to Conventional--in STUDENT LIFE

The band at halftime during a football game, active pepclub members at sporting events, and the fun initiations into clubs reflect the lighter aspects of student life amid the conventional day. Jets face, in everyday student life, varied challenges of the year beginning with the first day and continuing until the very last day.

Friends Meet on August 28

The busses arrive, students pile off; as the back parking lot fills with cars; halls are crowded with friends seeing friends...screaming...laughing...gossiping... Its August 28, and school has begun again. Rusted, forgotten bells ring again... first hour is in session. Warm welcomes and words come from principals, counselors, and fellow students...Moans and groans of schedules...meeting teachers...listening to first day speeches and learning new grading systems...schedule changes...and lunchroom hassle--mean that the first day is over... the rest of the year stands ahead for some 1,530 Western Heightsers to find the reasons in our time.

1973 Football Coronation

The theme for the 1973 Senior High Football Homecoming was Triumph. All three of the candidates were seniors. They were Karen Knowles, Kathy Evenoff and Fran Funderburg. Karen Knowles was crowned queen during the halftime of the game with Anadarko. The candidates for Junior High Football queen were all Freshmen. They were Tammy Lovelady, Debra Scruggs and Radonna Stewart. Tammy Lovelady was chosen queen. The coronation was moved inside to the dance which followed the game with Mustang.

As the holidays approached, Western Heights students helped to promote the Christmas Spirit with hall decorations, mistletoe, special club activities, and Christmas assemblies. The assemblies were performed by the Jr. High and High School chorus.

Poems such as Christmas, The Night After Christmas, and Christmas 1972 recited by Drama students during the assembly programs reflected both sides of the holiday. The light-hearted Santa Clause view and the religious side.

World's People Work Together To Find Peace

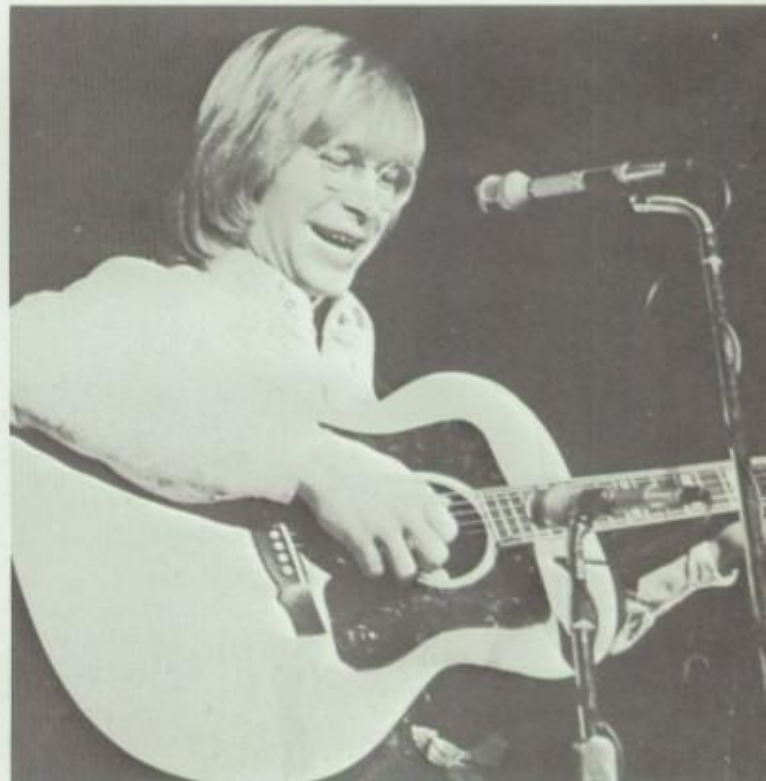

The beginning of another year led all people of the world on in the endless search for "reasons in our time" . . . the death of Harry S. Truman and Lyndon B. Johnson ended an era of great wartime leaders. . . promises of peace brought new hope and encouraged love and brotherhood with the ending of the Viet Nam war and the returning POW's . . . September brought death for many innocent people when the murder of 11 members of the Israeli Olympic team provided gruesome insight into the deadly nature of the Middle East conflict. . . the final U.S. flight to the moon was made, but left wonder in the minds of the American people as to the gains made by the time and money spent in the program. . . throughout the year, with all its happenings, people all over the world were growing, sharing, learning, finding new truths to live their lives by, and discovering more and more about themselves and what it means to be human for "reasons in our time."

CONNIE KENNEDY and Kathy Evanoff are "ooing and ahing" at something. I WONDER what Sara Fisher found to yell about? VICTOR DAVILLA is always trying to push something over. HECTOR SUZREZ is demonstrating how a dead tiger "goes." ALICIA ABBOT looks like she is going to take a nap on the snack bar. DEBBIE STEWART certainly seems to be concentrating on something!! MAYBE ANDY Scott should try acting along with sports. STEVE BERGE and Susan Morehead seems to be enjoyinng her lunch but what is Steve Berge looking at? SENIOR KAREN Knowles certainly shows expression when she becomes 1973 Football Queen. WONDER WHAT Pete Parker did wrong to get a look like this from Vicki Brannon? GARY HORN flashes a big smile for the camera. BAND DIRECTOR Mr. Pennington seems to hear a different drummer drumming. WHAT COULD Lesli Harwood have said to Marcus Aleman to get a response like that? LOOKS LIKE Janna Huber just saw a mouse. VIRGINIA LAXON seems to be hiding something in her locker. IS DIANE Staggs demonstrating the actions of a normal senior? WHAT COULD have brought this smile to Diane Thompson's face? YOU CAN tell Pep Club brings excitement to Terri Lennord. IS IT a boy or a football play Opal Wilson is yelling about? SAUM NOR MA HAMMADI flashes a great big smile for the camera. JR. HIGHTERS Mark Emerg, Pam Gove, Coby Balderas, Ladonna Hardesty certainly express themselves during the football game. CHEERLEADER VICKI Sloan looks at SOMETHING in amazement! IS'NT FOOTBALL player Mel Dyson supposed to look happy at pep assemblies? LORI ULRICH swings around to the cameramans call. The new uniforms were chosen by the pep club to be the standard uniform for all future WH High School pep clubs.

Seniors Plan '73 Graduation For May 25

Going through junior high and high school in the midst of the Viet Nam War makes the 1973 Senior's graduating year of peace a memorable one.

Lead by class president Sherrie Gilliam, vice president Lonnie McCalister, secretary Sandra Courtney, and treasurer Paula Milgrim, the seniors have had many fund raising projects. The senior's money will go toward the costs of graduation, senior outtings, and a project that will be left to the school.

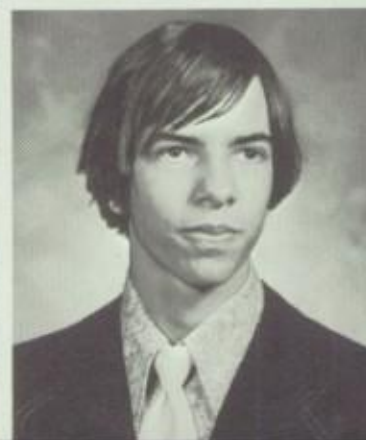

The active class sponsors were Distributive Education instructor Dan Foreman, English IV teacher Elizabeth Bandy, History teacher Joyce Webb, and Basketball Coach Glen Haswell.

During their English classes, the Seniors elected the 9 girls and boys who they felt best fit the Senior Personalities whose pictures are scattered throughout the class section. The Most of Best Couple was the boy and girl from the personalities who received the most total votes.

Senior Minds Full of Plans For New Life

Even though the Senior's minds are full of plans for after-graduation left, the feeling of "everything happens after we leave" is still present.

Every year Seniors feel as though something better comes along after they leave. Several changes will be made. Not only in the curriculum but also in pre-enrollment. The 1973-74 school term pre-enrollment will be computerized. Schedules will be figured by computers to assure accuracy. The seniors will be missing a great many changes in curriculum. The band classes will expand to allow Western Heights to have two high school bands, two stage bands, and two junior high bands. The business department will have an on-the-job training course (C.O.E.) for students interested in a business career. However, the major curriculum changes will be in the English classes. The program which will involve only juniors and seniors in 73-74 will change from the yearly English class to four nine-week courses. Juniors are required to take a composition course, another skill course, and two nine-week courses to choose from a choice of 28. The same applies to the Seniors except they only have to take one skill course and may select 3 out of 22. A few of the classes offered will be: Vocabulary and Diction, British Satire and Humor, and Mass Media.

Juniors Prove Spirit, Climaxing Efforts With Highest Collection During Spirit Week

Juniors prove spirit many times during 1972-1973. One of the many projects which they accomplished were: winning the spirit stick during the Homecoming assembly, having the longest class spirit chain, coming in second in the Junior Olympics and holding the spirit stick in the next four consecutive assemblies.

The Junior class sold candy canes, held cake raffles, worked concessions, and held bake sales to raise money for the Junior-Senior Prom in the spring.

FORTY-SEVEN fifty is the price paid for a boys class ring. RHONDA CLIFTON doesn't look to interested in studying. MELODY BEVERLY passes time reading the comics. VICKI ALTMAN is having a tough time of it.

Seventh Graders Begin Six More Years

The class of '78 found 1972-73 a year for new and exciting events . . . a year of remembering all the football and basketball games with their challenging opponents.

The class elected officers early in the year. They were Curtis Anderson, president; David Askins, vice-president; Janet Bennett, secretary-treasurer. Seventh grade yearbook king and queen attendants were Billy Baldini and Debbie John.

At Christmas time the decorated halls and office reflected the beauty and warmth that all seventh graders shared at this time.

Hours of Preparation, Mark Service in Life of Reasons

In Our Time FACULTY, ADMINISTRATION

Preparation by teachers for the 1972-1973 year included attendance at different workshops, such as demonstrations in use of audio-visual equipment, which also offered chances to meet each other and exchange ideas. This concern for fellow humans was then passed along to the students as individuals in an effort to provide better learning. Along with the faculty, the administration has put in many hard hours of work to improve the education system provided in Western Heights.

North Central Evaluation Visits Western Heights

Entering the twelfth year for Western Heights School District, the School Board and Central Office staff gave top priority to four major goals: continuing to provide highest quality education for every Western Heights student... creating an atmosphere of understanding and mutual respect by human relations programs and workshops... meeting requirements for North Central Evaluation and completing the first phase of the future Western Heights.

GRADING MENTAL maturity tests is just one of the many duties undertaken by A.J. Hickman, seventh grade principal. DR. LEONARD Campbell, Superintendent. KENNETH ANDERSON, assistant principal in charge of the fieldhouse is visited by Glen Moore, junior high principal. THE SCHOOL Board member, at one of their meetings, are William Rotramel, Ray Hardesty, vice-president; Melvin Cameron, president; Dorothy Cavaness, secretary; George Wortham, W.C. Littman. ON A visit to school, Don Anderson, assistant superintendent, takes a seat in the journalism room.

Cooks, Secretaries, Custodians And Bus Drivers Play Vital Role At WHHS

Cooks, secretaries, custodians and bus drivers played an important part in the operation of WHHS. While cooks prepared meals, secretaries met challenges; issuing late slips, typing, filing, and manning the phone. Custodians kept the school clean, walking miles of corridors, keeping the rooms heated, and helping students with locker problems. Bus-drivers made daily trips picking up and taking home students.

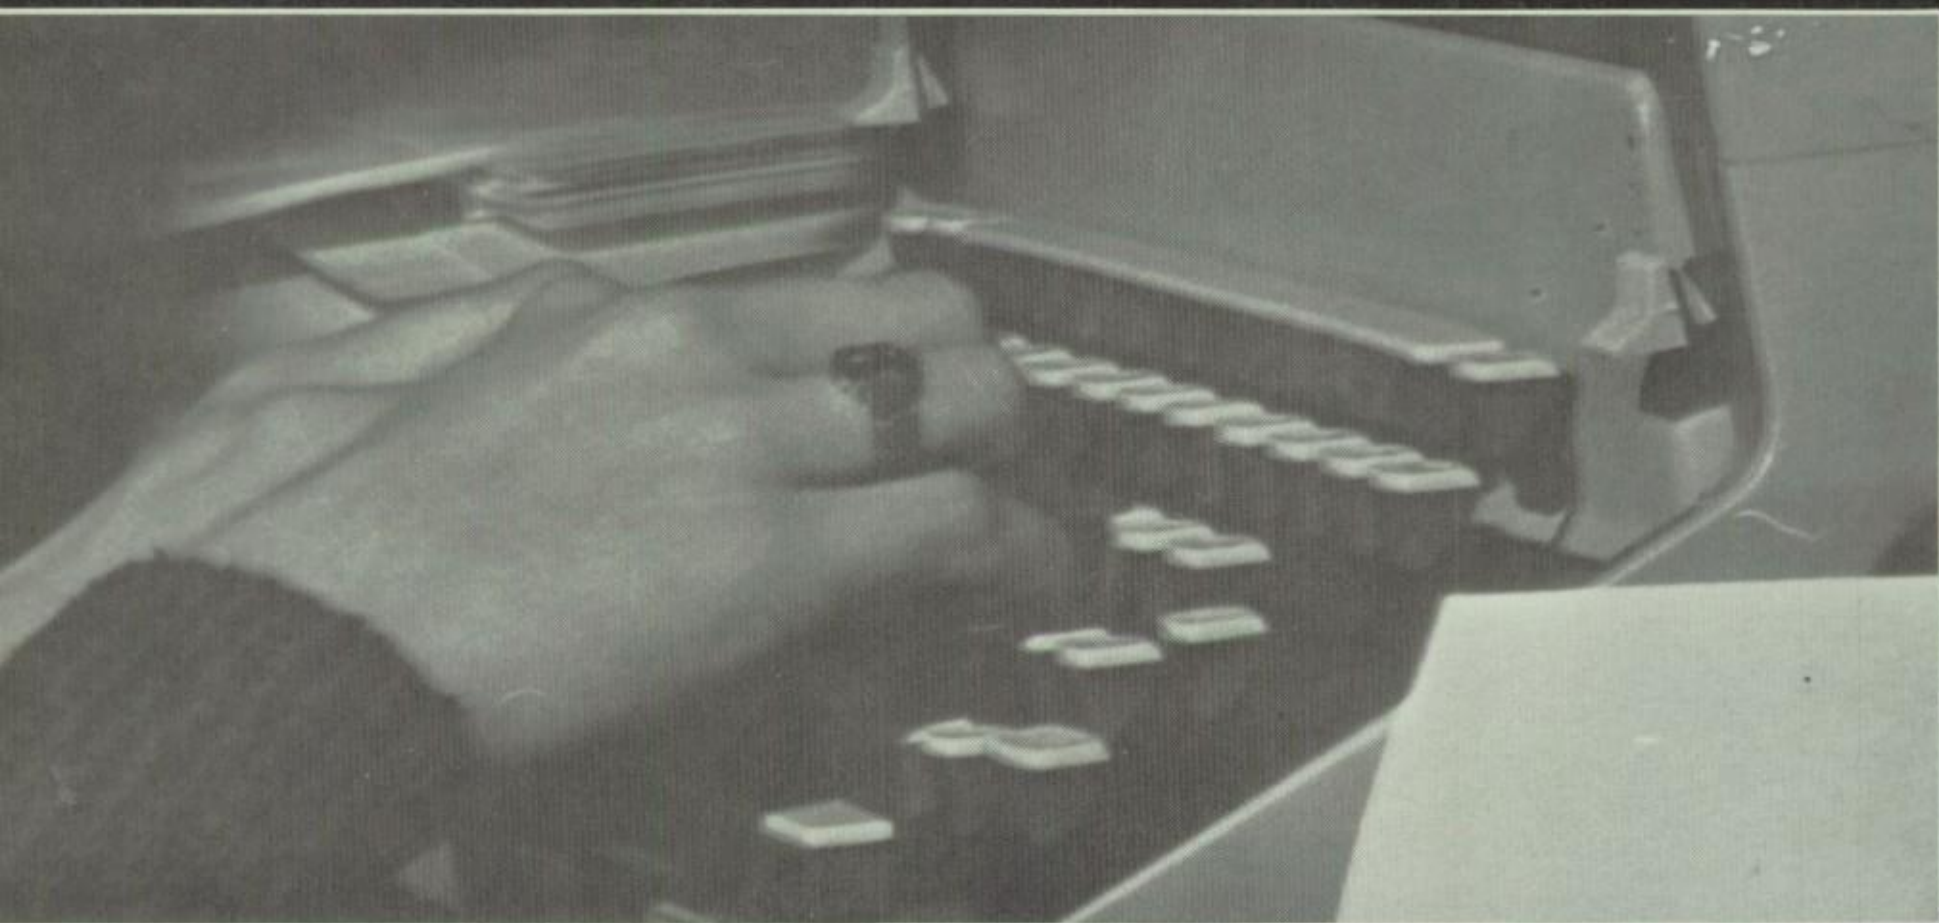

WHILE JOYCE Eby counts money at her desk, Pat Rickard makes announcements. SECRETARY AND part-time librarian Faye Ham makes a futile attempt to hide from the camera. WORKING TOGETHER, Betty Claybourn, secretary to the counselors, and Edith Blevins, main office secretary, smile for camera. HANDLING SCHOOL money is Joyce Eby's job. CATHYRAN BURKEY takes lunch money. JOE BIRDWELL does his afterschool janitor work. THE BUSDRIVERS for 1973 were: James B. Thompson,

Students Find Comprehensive Curriculum .

Adds Wide Variety to ACADEMIC LIFE

The Jet's Marching Band playing during Friday night's half time show, a typing student rushing to get an in-class assignment done, and students in reading carrels gathering information for a report, reflect various aspects of Academic Life.

Students Exercise Mind and Body
In Various In-Class Activities

POET SKIP Largent, visited Western Heights early in the year. Largent helped the high school English students find a new concept in poetry. "HERE'S THE trouble" exclaims Cleat Butler to David Clifton as they work on a car in auto mechanics. DAVID CHITWOOD expresses his views about the math class to Inge vanHaastert and Ricky Hall. INGE VANHAASTERT checks the file for over-due books in the library sixth hour. GREG JONES and Sherri Stout carefully lay-out and straighten the front page of the "Jet Stream".

Curriculum Ranges From
Sports to Business Classes

Anita Goodbrake, Becky Lynn and Cheryl Deason learn all about combing, brushing, spraying, ratting, shampooing and setting hair in cosmetology. JO HOLLOWAY helps Sheila Burns on a worksheet over the novel "Nicholas and Alexandra," in Mrs. Reynolds junior English class.

New Special Equipment
Helps Many Students In Their Classroom Activities

"YUCKI" SAYS Cynthia Monroe and Maria Zamora as they watch Jimmy Hawkins dissect a frog in the Biology I class. LISA MONTGOMERY and Stephanie Buettner fill the halls every morning with the smell of fresh baked food. LINDA THACKER carefully checks over her figures in her business education class. GARY WRIGHT uses a map to get his point across to the American History class. AN-

Reach Out for Tomorrow, the Future

Tomorrow ... it never comes. We dream, wonder, and pray for reasons ... learning but never searching for the truth ... and finally fulfilling dreams and still asking why?

The future is wide ... it's everlasting, take time and use it wisely ... for time is all we have ... and tomorrow becomes today ... today, yesterday ... and the future is still tomorrow.

Today's Reasons, As of Yet, Unanswered

Today ... it's here ... it's now, make it something worth remembering ... because it comes only once it's hard to decide where to start.

Start over ... capitalize on yesterday's mistakes ... make each minute be a foundation for the next.

Students are reaching out for today's answers ... not yesterday's. They ask questions and search for answers ...

Today questions tomorrow, which never comes ... but reasons are found only in time ... and time includes yesterday, today and tomorrow.

Students Seek The Ability To Ask, Answer

Students search for tomorrow, reach for the "whys" ... but find only today's, receive only the
"why not's."
They fill their time with dreams of the future ...

hopes for today and memories of yesterday. All of these are important to finding answers for the many "Reasons in Our Time."

ROSALIND RAMSEY gets pretty excited about a Jet victory. EDDY BEATY studies the game from the side lines. DARLA BRIGGS shows her pride in the Jets. DANA SWEENEY looks for her ride home. PATTY HALFORD and Joretta Dees analyze crowd. ROBERT VAN HAASSTERT puts his camera away after finishing an assignment in the rain. JACKIE LAMARR prepares for half time show. TINA WILLIAMS is thinking pretty hard about something. STEVE KELLY is helped to regain his breath.

Another year has come and gone ...
A year in which -- as always before -- underclassmen found their way through crowded halls ... seniors took their final steps toward graduation ... and still questions remain to be answered and reasons remain to be found.

This generation will not meet defeat
... only victory -- as one day's sunset promises the next day's sunrise to complete yet another year.

Reasons In Our Time
